PRAYER: Criminal Original Petition filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to set aside the order dated 14.10.2020 passed in CrI.MP.No.6583 of 2019 in C.C.No.147 of 2015 by the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Nagercoil.

For Petitioner : Mr.C.Kishore

For Respondent : Mr.S.Chandrasekar
Additional Public Prosecutor

ORDER

The present petition has been filed to set aside the order dated 14.10.2020 passed by Judicial Magistrate No.I, Nagercoil in CrI.MP.No.6583 of 2019 in C.C.No.147 of 2015.

2. The petitioner / accused is facing trial in C.C.No.147 of 2015 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Nagercoil, for the alleged offence punishable under Section 304A of the Indian Penal Code. During the course of trial, the prosecution examined 6 witnesses on various dates from 21.11.2016 and the petitioner / accused did not cross examine the witnesses on the day when they were examined in Chief. Subsequently, the petitioner / accused filed an application under Section 311 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in CrI.MP(MD)No.6583 of 2019 for the purpose of cross examining PW1 to PW5 and the said petition was dismissed by the trial court vide orders dated 14.10.2020. Aggrieved over the same, the petitioner/accused has filed the present petition.

3.Mr.C.Kishore, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner / accused contended that since the counsel engaged by the petitioner/accused did not cross examine the witnesses on the day when they were examined in Chief, a petition under Section 311 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was filed by the present counsel on

4. Per contra, Mr.S.Chandrasekar learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would contend that the petition to recall PW1 to PW5 was filed by the petitioner / accused without any valid reason and therefore, the same is liable to be dismissed.

5. It is seen from the records that PW1 to PW6 were examined on various dates from 21.11.2016. The contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner that the previous counsel on record did not cross examine the witnesses on the day when they were examined in chief is not acceptable and same cannot be a ground to recall the witnesses.

6. In the decision in State (NCT of Delhi) vs. Shiv Kumar Yadav reported in (2016) 2 SCC 402, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held thus:

"29. We may now sum up our reasons for disapproving the view of the High Court in the present case:

(i) The trial court and the High Court held that the accused had appointed counsel of his choice. He was facing trial in other cases also. The earlier counsel were given due opportunity and had duly conducted cross-examination. They were under no handicap;

(ii) No finding could be recorded that the counsel appointed by the accused were incompetent particularly at the back of such counsel;

(iii) Expeditious trial in a heinous offence as is alleged in the present case is in the interests of justice;

(iv) The trial Court as well as the High Court rejected the reasons for recall of the witnesses;

(v) The Court has to keep in mind not only the need for giving fair opportunity to the accused but also the need for ensuring that the victim of the crime is not unduly harassed;

(vi) Mere fact that the accused was in custody and that he will suffer by the delay could be no consideration for allowing recall of witnesses, particularly at the fag end of the trial;

(vii) Mere change of counsel cannot be ground to recall the witnesses;

(viii) There is no basis for holding that any prejudice will be caused to the accused unless the witnesses are recalled;

(ix) The High Court has not rejected the reasons given by the trial court nor given any justification for permitting recall of the witnesses except for making general observations that recall was necessary for fair trial. This observation is contrary to the reasoning of the High Court in dealing with the grounds for recall I.e., denial of fair opportunity on account of incompetence of earlier counsel or on account of expeditious proceedings;

(x) There is neither any patent error in the approach adopted by the trial court rejecting the prayer for recall nor any clear injustice if such prayer is not granted."

7. Further, in Rajaram Prasad Yadav Vs. State of Bihar reported in (2013) 14 SCC 461, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has culled out certain principles to be kept in mind, while exercising power under Section 311 Cr.P.C., which read as follows:-

"(i) The exercise of the widest discretionary power under Section 311 Cr.P.C. should ensure that the judgment should not be rendered on inchoate, inconclusive speculative presentation of facts, as thereby the ends of justice would be defeated.

(ii) If evidence of any witness appears to the Court to be essential to the just decision of the case, it is the power of the Court to summon and examine or recall and re-examine any such person.

(iii) The exercise of power under Section 311 Cr.P.C. should be resorted to only with the object of finding out the truth or obtaining proper proof for such facts, which will lead to a just and correct decision of the case.

(iv) The exercise of the said power cannot be dubbed as filling in a lacuna in a prosecution case, unless the facts and circumstances of the case make it apparent that the exercise of power by the Court would result in causing serious prejudice to the accused, resulting in miscarriage of justice.

(v) The wide discretionary power should be exercised judiciously and not arbitrarily.

(vi) The Court must satisfy itself that it was in every respect essential to examine such a witness or to recall him for further examination in order to arrive at a just decision of the case.

(vii) The object of Section 311 Cr.P.C. simultaneously imposes a duty on the Court to determine the truth and to render a just decision.

(viii) The Court arrives at the conclusion that additional evidence is necessary, not because it would be impossible to pronounce the judgment without it, but because there would be a failure of justice without such evidence being considered.

(ix) Exigency of the situation, fair play and good sense should be the safe guard, while exercising the discretion. The Court should bear in mind that no party in a trial can be foreclosed from correcting errors and that if proper evidence was not adduced or a relevant material was not brought on record due to any inadvertence, the Court should be magnanimous in permitting such mistakes to be rectified.

(x) The Court should be conscious of the position that after all the trial is basically for the prisoners and the Court should afford an opportunity to them in the fairest manner possible. In that parity of reasoning, it would be safe to err in favour of the accused getting an opportunity rather than protecting the prosecution against possible prejudice at the cost of the accused. The Court should bear in mind that improper or capricious exercise of such a discretionary power, may lead to undesirable results.

(xi) The power under Section 311 Cr.P.C. must therefore, be invoked by the Court only in order to meet the ends of justice for strong and valid reasons and the same must be exercised with care, caution and circumspection. The Court should bear in mind that fair trial entails the interest of the accused, the victim and the society and, therefore, the grant of fair and proper opportunities to the persons concerned, must be ensured being a constitutional goal, as well as a human right."

8. The said decision has also been followed in Haryana Vs. Ram Mehar and others reported in (2016) 8 Supreme Court Cases 762, where the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that "concept of fair trial cannot be limitlessly stretched to permit recall of witnesses endlessly on ground of magnanimity, etc."

9. In view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and in view of the fact that there is no solid ground to recall the witnesses, this Court finds no infirmity in the orders passed by the trial Court and accordingly, this petition is dismissed.
