JUDGMENT

(Judgment of the Court was delivered by M.M.SUNDRESH, J.)

The learned counsel for the appellant submitted that what the appellant seeks is to either delete the name of one Baskaran or to include the name of either the petitioner's wife or his name. The order of the learned Single Judge, directing the parties to file an appeal is not correct.

2. We are not inclined to entertain this writ appeal for the reason that the aforesaid Baskaran has not been impleaded as a party before this court. Certainly, he has to be arrayed as a party. While setting aside the order of the learned Single Judge, liberty is given to the appellant to file a fresh writ petition, after arraying the said Baskaran, as a party to the writ petition.

3. With the above directions, the writ appeal stands disposed of. No costs.
