ORDER

The present petition is filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure praying to call for the records in M.C.No.90 of 2020 dated 02.03.2021 passed by the first respondent and quash the same.

2.The primordial submission of the petitioner is that the impugned proceedings, dated 02.03.2021, under Section 111 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, issued by the first respondent against the petitioner is illegal and un-sustainable, as it does not state the facts leading to the issuance of the said proceedings.

3.Mr.P.Subbaraj, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner relied on the decision of the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court in M.Krishnamurthy Vs. The Sub Divisional Magistrate Cum Revenue Divisional Officer, Krishnagiri and another, reported in 2017 (1) CTC 680, in which, it has been held thus :

"23. In our view, a show cause order under Section 107 r/w 111 can be subjected to judicial review under Section 482 Cr.P.C. or Article 226 of the Constitution of India, if on the face of it, the order does not satisfy the minimum requirements of Section 111 or that the same has been passed by a person who is not an Executive Magistrate and not otherwise. In other words, if the order does not contain the substance of the information received, the amount of the bond to be executed, the term for which it is to be in force, and the number, character and class of sureties (if any) required, only then, can the High Court interfere and not otherwise. Factual adjudication of the satisfaction expressed by the Magistrate is ruled out in view of the decision of the Supreme Court in Vicco Laboratories (supra)."

4.Mr.A.Robinson, learned Government Advocate (Criminal side), who accepts notice on behalf of the respondents, on instructions, fairly conceded that the summons issued to the accused person by the Executive Magistrate is not in inconsonance with the provisions laid down under Section 111 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and therefore, the same is liable to be set aside.

5.Considering the submissions made on either side, the impugned order in M.C.No.90 of 2020, dated 02.03.2021 passed by the II Class Executive Magistrate cum Thashildhar, Paramakudi, Ramanathapuram District is hereby set aside.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
