S.VAIDYANATHAN, J.
and
G.JAYACHANDRAN, J.

Alaguraja @ Kottu Raja, aged about 25 years, son of Solaiappan, was detained by the first respondent, terming him as a Goonda as defined under Section 2(f) of the Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Cyber Law Offenders, Drug Offenders, Forest Offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders, Sand Offenders, Sexual Offenders, Slum Grabbers and Video Pirates Act, 1982 [Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982], vide impugned order dated 26.02.2021. The mother of the detenu has moved this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, seeking issuance of a Writ of Habeas Corpus to call for the entire records pertaining to the proceedings of the first respondent made in No.20/BCDFGISSSV/2021, dated 26.02.2021, quash the same and set the detenu at liberty.

2.The grounds of detention indicates that on 15.11.2020 one Muruganandam, son of Panchavarnam was found dead head severed from body near St. Mary's Church Compound, Madurai. In this regard, an F.I.R. in Crime No.1166 of 2020 under Sections 307, 341 and 302 of I.P.C. was registered based on the complaint given by the mother of the deceased Muruganandam. The investigation unraveled that the murder of Muruganandam is a sequel of earlier crime occurred in the year 2019, wherein one M.S.Pandi was done to death by Manikandan @ Chinna Vayithalai and his associates due to previous enmity. The said Manikandan @ Chinna Vayithalai, who is the prime accused in M.S.Pandi's murder case, was released on bail and stayed at the house of one Cent Muniyasamy. To wreak vengeance for the murder of M.S.Pandi, his brother-in-law V.K.Gurusamy arranged for surveillance of Manikandan @ Chinna Vayithalai, so that they can finish him off at the appropriate time. In the said pursuit of crime, it appears that Muruganandam has helped V.K.Gurusamy and his associates. Knowing about this, Manikandan @ Chinna Vayithalai group had arranged Bavu @ Palanimurugan and Eli Dinesh @ Nondi Dinesh and followed the movements of Manikandan @ Chinna Vayithalai. On 15.11.2020 when Muruganandam and Eli Dinesh @ Nondi Dinesh came to St. Mary's Church in a two wheeler, Eli Dinesh @ Nondi Dinesh left Muruganandam there and moved. Soon thereafter, Dineshkumar @ Thoothukudi Dinesh, Bavu @ Palanimurugan, Alex @ Chinna Alex @ Alexpandian, Raja @ Undiyal Raja and the detenu Alaguraja @ Kottu Raja came in a Indica Car with deadly weapons and attacked the said Muruganandam and severed the head Muruganandam and throw it at the gate of St. Mary's Church. A case was registered against the detenu and others for the offences under Sections 307, 341 and 302 of I.P.C., which was altered into Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 307, 341 and 302 of I.P.C. Subsequently also, the Section of law was altered into Sections 120-B, 147, 148, 294(b), 307, 341, 302 and 392 of I.P.C. read with Section 83(2) of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015.

3.The detaining authority having gone through the papers, had found that the murder of Muruganandam is the sequence of earlier murder of M.S.Pandi and the gang war between two groups has led to disturbance of public peace and retaliatory murders. All the accused persons, who were involved in Muruganandam's murder case, arrested and remanded to judicial custody. The application for bail filed on behalf of the detenu in the above said case was dismissed by the learned Judicial Magistrate No.IV, Madurai, in Cr.M.P.No.2990 of 2020 on 15.12.2020, whereas conditional bail was granted on 22.02.2021 to Nallamurugan, Muniyasami @ Tumini and Maniperumal, who are the co-accused of the detenu in the above said ground case, by the learned Principal Sessions Judge (i/c) Madurai, in Cr.M.P.Nos.683 and 780 of 2021. Therefore, the detaining authority opined the likelihood of granting bail to the detenu Alaguraja @ Kottu Raja is also imminent.

4.The Habeas Corpus Petition is filed on the ground that the principle laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of D.K.Basu vs. State of West Bengal [AIR 1997 SC 610] was not followed. The detenu was arrested on 17.11.2020 in Crime No.1166 of 2020. The investigation in the said case has already been completed and final report has also been filed. While so, the detention order dated 26.02.2021 was passed and the same was received by the detenu on 27.02.2021. The detention order, which was passed after nearly 100 days from the date of arrest of the detenu in the ground case, is unexplained and therefore, the same has to be quashed. It is contended by the petitioner's counsel that out of 12 accused involved in the case, the order of detention was slapped only against Accused Nos.2 to 5 adopting the method of pick and choose and therefore, the detention order is bad in law.

5.Per contra, the first respondent has filed counter affidavit stating that the detention order was passed after considering the material records and on subjective satisfaction that the detenu's presence will be prejudicial to the maintenance of public order, the detention order was passed on 26.02.2021 immediately after receipt of recommendation from the sponsoring authority. The gruesome murder of Muruganandam, they severed the head of the deceased thrown at the St. Mary's Church Gate and the headless body found in a different place would clearly show the premeditated murder by the accused persons to take revenge of the murder of M.S.Pandi, which took place in the year 2019. The rivalry between two criminal gangs has gone to the extent of annihilation each other gruesomely causing awe to the public. Hence, the detention of the detenu under the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982 is in accordance with the procedure and law.

6.Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials available on record.

7.The City of Madurai is facing a peculiar law and order issue namely, a war between the gangs leading to a chain of murders one after another as retaliation and revenge. The case under consideration is one such incident where the detenu is involved in the murder of Muruganandam, which is retaliatory attack in response to the murder of one M.S.Pandi. The sponsoring authority in this case, being satisfied that to maintain law and order, preventive detention of the detenu is necessary in view of the bail granted to some of the accused persons, had sponsored the detention of the persons with all relevant records and the detaining authority soon after the receipt of the recommendation, had applied his mind, scrutinized the documents and recorded the reasons for detention in detail and served the detention order dated 26.02.2021 to the detenu.

8.One of the contentions raised by the petitioner's counsel is that the detaining authority has applied pick and choose method to slap the detention order. This Court is of the view that out of 12 accused, the detention order has been passed only against four accused in this case, since their antecedents and association are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order and peace. Therefore, out of 12 accused persons, only for the four accused persons, preventive detention order has been passed. This clearly shows that the detaining authority has applied his mind and only in the rarest of rare cases, where the very presence of the persons in the Society will create disturbance, preventive detention order has been passed and not against every one indiscriminately. The reason for detention speaks for itself. There is no undue delay in considering the representation and also there is no error or omission in appreciating the documents. This Court is of the view that the detention order has been passed after due consideration of the records and on application of mind. There is no substantial reason to interfere in the well reasoned order of detention. Hence, this Habeas Corpus Petition is dismissed.
