PRAYER : Petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying for the issue of a Writ of Habeas Corpus, calling for the entire records, connected with the detention order of the respondent No.2 in B.C.D.F.G.I.S.S.S.V.No.34/2021, dated 23.03.2021 and quash the same and direct the respondents to produce the body or person of the detenu by name Gopi, S/o. Ravi, aged about 26 years, now detained as "Goonda" at Trichy Central Prison before this Court and set him at liberty.

For Petitioner : Mr.R.Alagumani

For Respondents : Mr.S.Ravi

Additional Public Prosecutor

O R D E R

(Order of the Court was made by J.NISHA BANU, J.)

This habeas corpus petition has been filed by the detenu, namely, Gopi, S/o. Ravi, aged about 26 years, challenging the detention order in B.C.D.F.G.I.S.S.S.V.No.34/2021, dated 23.03.2021, passed by the second respondent, branding him as "Goonda" as contemplated under Section 2(f) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982.

2. Mr.R.Alagumani, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, would submit that the detenu has not filed any bail application in the second adverse case and the ground case. It is the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner that when no bail petition has been filed by the detenu, the subjective satisfaction reached by the Detaining Authority is without any basis and there is no imminent possibility of the detenu coming out on bail by filing bail petition before the appropriate Court. Further, the detenu was arrested on 24.02.2021. But the Detaining Authority has passed the detention order against the detenu, after 27 days ie., on 23.03.2021 and the delay for passing the detention order was not properly explained by the Detaining Authority.

3. Mr.S.Ravi, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the State, on instructions, submitted that after satisfying with the materials placed by the Sponsoring Authority, the Detaining Authority has passed the detention order and there is no illegality or infirmity in the detention order. It is also stated that even if there is any delay in disposal of the representation, it has not caused any prejudice to the rights of the detenu and hence, prayed for dismissal of the habeas corpus petition.

4. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials available on record.

5. Even though the learned counsel for the petitioner has raised several grounds, he has confined his arguments only to the delay in disposal of the petitioner's representation. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the procedural safeguards guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India have not been followed in this case and there is unexplained and inordinate delay in disposal of the petitioner's representation, which would vitiate the impugned order of detention.

6. In the instant case, the proforma furnished by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor would indicate that as against the impugned detention order, the petitioner made a representation to the first respondent on 05.04.2021 and it was received on 19.04.2021. Remarks were called for on 20.04.2021 and it was received on 11.05.2021. The Deputy Secretary dealt with the matter on 12.05.2021. The concerned Minister dealt with the matter on 15.05.2021 and the representation came to be rejected on 07.06.2021. It is seen that in between 20.04.2021 and 11.05.2021, there was a delay of 14 days, after excluding the Government Holidays of 6 days, in considering the petitioner's representation.

7. At this juncture, it is useful to refer the decision of the Honourable Apex Court in the case of Rajammal vs. State of Tamil Nadu and another, reported in 1999 (1) SCC 417, wherein the Apex Court has observed and held that it is for the Authority concerned to explain the delay, if any, in disposal of the representation and if any delay was caused on account of nay indifference or lapse in considering the representation, such delay will adversely affect further detention of the prisoner.

8. In the case on hand, as stated supra, the delay of 14 days in considering the representation of the petitioner has not been properly explained by the respondents. Hence, in our considered view, the detention order is liable to be set aside solely on the ground of delay by following the decision of the Honourable Apex Court referred supra.

9. In fine, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. The detention order in B.C.D.F.G.I.S.S.S.V.No.34/2021, dated 23.03.2021, passed by the second respondent, is set aside. Consequently, the detenu, Gopi, S/o. Ravi, aged about 26 years, who is now detained at Central Prison, Trichy, is directed to be released forthwith unless his presence or custody or detention is required in connection with any other case.
