When the relatives of the defacto complainant requested the parents of the petitioner to marry her to the petitioner, they threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner denied all the allegations made against the petitioner and submitted that interim protection was given to the co-accused in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is in custody from 18.04.2021 and therefore, he seeks bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that during enquiry, it is reported by the petitioner that he is not willing to marry the defacto complainant.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case where the petitioner said to have had physical relationship with the defacto complainant on the promise of marriage and thereafter, refused to marry her and the fact that the case was registered only on 19.03.2021, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
