For Respondents	:Mr.S.Ravi
	Additional Public Prosecutor

O R D E R

(Order of the Court was made by J.NISHA BANU, J.)

This habeas corpus petition has been filed by the mother of the detenu, namely, Vijay, S/o. Ravi @ Ayyarettu, aged about 22 years, challenging the detention order in Cr.M.P.No.05/2021, dated 26.03.2021, passed by the second respondent, branding him as "Goonda" as contemplated under Section 2(f) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982.

2. Mr.K.A.S.Prabhu, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, would submit that the arrest of the detenu was not properly intimated to either the family members or the relatives of the petitioner which seriously affected the valuable right of the detenu to make effective representation for revocation of the detention order. He would further submit that the detenu was arrested on 27.02.2021, but the Detaining Authority has passed the detention order against the detenu, after 26 days ie., on 26.03.2021 and the delay for passing the detention order was not properly explained by the Detaining Authority. According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, the Detention Order was passed against the detenu, based on the Order issued by the Government in G.O.(D). No.29, Home, Prohibition and Exercise (XVI) Department, dated 11.01.2021. But, the said G.O., was not served along with the grounds of detention as well as detention order.

3. Mr.S.Ravi, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the State, on instructions, submitted that after satisfying with the materials placed by the Sponsoring Authority, the Detaining Authority has passed the detention order and there is no illegality or infirmity in the detention order. It is also stated that even if there is any delay in disposal of the representation, it has not caused any prejudice to the rights of the detenu and hence, prayed for dismissal of the habeas corpus petition.

4. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials available on record.

5. Even though the learned counsel for the petitioner has raised several grounds, he has confined his arguments only to the delay in disposal of the petitioner's representation. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the procedural safeguards guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India have not been followed in this case and there is unexplained and inordinate delay in disposal of the petitioner's representation, which would vitiate the impugned order of detention.

6. In the instant case, the proforma furnished by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor would indicate that as against the impugned detention order, the petitioner made a representation to the first respondent on 03.05.2021 and it was received on 06.05.2021. Remarks were called for on the same day ie., on 06.05.2021 and it was received on 18.05.2021. The Deputy Secretary dealt with the matter on 18.05.2021. The concerned Minister dealt with the matter on 26.07.2021 and the representation came to be rejected on 26.07.2021. It is seen that in between 18.05.2021 and 26.07.2021, there was a delay of 68 days, after excluding the Government Holidays of 21 days, there was a delay of 47 days in considering the petitioner's representation.

7. At this juncture, it is useful to refer the decision of the Honourable Apex Court in the case of Rajammal vs. State of Tamil Nadu and another, reported in 1999 (1) SCC 417, wherein the Apex Court has observed and held that it is for the Authority concerned to explain the delay, if any, in disposal of the representation and if any delay was caused on account of nay indifference or lapse in considering the representation, such delay will adversely affect further detention of the prisoner.

8. In the case on hand, as stated supra, the delay of 47 days in considering the representation of the petitioner has not been properly explained by the respondents. Hence, in our considered view, the detention order is liable to be set aside solely on the ground of delay by following the decision of the Honourable Apex Court referred supra.

9. In fine, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. The detention order in Cr.M.P.No.05/2021, dated 26.03.2021, passed by the second respondent, is set aside. Consequently, the detenu, Vijay, S/o. Ravi alias Ayyarettu, aged about 22 years, who is now detained at Trichy Central Prison, is directed to be released forthwith unless his presence or custody or detention is required in connection with any other case.
