ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

Apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under sections 294(b), 323 and 506 (i) of IPC in Crime No.160 of 2021 on the file of the respondent police, the petitioner has come forward with this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent police.

3. The case of the prosecution is that on 26.04.2021 at 10.00. p.m, the petitioner went to the defacto complainant's hotel and asked for food. The same was denied by the defacto complainant saying that they were not allowed to run shop after 10.00 p.m, hence, there was a quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. The petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him. Hence, the complaint.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

5.The learned Government Advocate (criminal side), on instructions, submitted that the injured has been treated as out patient and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner.

6.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured has been treated as out patient in the Hospital and also the fact that except 506 (i) of IPC, all other offences are bailable offences, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Theni, and on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that,
