2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant owns goat form. On 21.06.2021, at about 03.00 am., when he was in the goat form along with his father, one Prasath and seven others came there. The said Prasath and three others had sword and aruval. They tried to enter into the goat form. When the defacto complainant and his father asked them to get out of the place, they scolded in filthy language and made criminal intimidation with sword and aruval. The said Prasath attacked the defacto complainant with aruval on his neck. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police opposed this petition on the ground that investigation is not completed. However, he submitted that the injured person had been discharged from the hospital

5.Perusal of FIR shows that there is no specific overt act alleged against this petitioner. It is also seen that the injured person had already been discharged from the hospital. Therefore, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
