The case of the petitioner is that she purchased the property situated in S.No.249/8 of Agaram Village, Alangulam Taluk, Tenkasi District, by way of sale deed and she is in possession and enjoyment of the property. But the third respondent has fabricated the settlement deed for the above said property in his name. He would further submit that the father of the parties namely Subbaiya also appeared before the Enquiry Officer and he has also given a statement to the effect that he settled the property in favour of his son. But, at that time, this petitioner did not make any claim. After some time, she created problem by making claim. On that ground, a trouble arose between the parties.
