This Criminal Original Petition has been filed for directing the second respondent to provide protection to the petitioner to carry out the petition mentioned activity.

2. The petitioner and the third respondent are brothers and it appears that there is some dispute between them. Since the petitioner is not having any enforceable judgment or order from the jurisdictional civil Court, I am not in a position to grant the relief in this criminal original petition at this stage.

If such suit is filed, the jurisdictional civil Court will number the same without delay and give disposal to the I.A., on merits and in accordance with law within a period of eight weeks thereafter.
