PRAYER : Petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying for the issue of a Writ of Habeas Corpus or any other appropriate Writ or order or direction in the nature of Writ of Habeas Corpus, calling for the records, connected with the detention order of the respondent No.2 in Cr.M.P.No. 02 of 2021 dated 25.03.2021 and set aside the same as illegal and direct the respondents to produce the body or person of the detenu by name Vigneswaran @ Vicky, S/o.Manikandan, aged about 23 years, now detained in Madurai Central Prison before this court and set him at liberty.

For Petitioner : Mr.T.Indrachithu

For Respondents : Mr.S.Ravi

Additional Public Prosecutor

O R D E R

(Order of the Court was made by R.PONGIAPPAN, J.)

This habeas corpus petition has been filed by the mother of the detenu namely, Vigneswaran @ Vicky, S/o.Manikandan, aged about 23 years, challenging the detention order in Cr.M.P.No. 02 of 2021 dated 25.03.2021 passed by the second respondent, branding him as "Goonda" as contemplated under Section 2(f) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982.

2. Mr.T.Indrachithu, learned counsel for the petitioner, would argue that even though the petitioner has raised several grounds, he has confined his arguments only to the delay in disposal of the petitioner's representation. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the procedural safeguards guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India have not been followed in this case and there is unexplained and inordinate delay in disposal of the petitioner's representation, which would vitiate the impugned order of detention.

3. Mr.Ravi, learned Additional Public Prosecutor, while reiterating the counter affidavit filed by the second respondent, submitted that after satisfying with the materials placed by the Sponsoring Authority, the Detaining Authority has passed the detention order and there is no illegality or infirmity in the detention order. It is also stated that even if there is any delay in disposal of the representation, it has not caused any prejudice to the rights of the detenu and hence, prayed for dismissal of the habeas corpus petition.

4. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

5. In the instant case, the proforma has been furnished by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor. The proforma would indicate that as against the impugned detention order, the petitioner has made a representation to the 1st respondent on 11.05.2021 which was received on 17.05.2021. Remarks on the said representation were called for on 17.05.2021 and it was received on 16.06.2021. The Deputy Secretary concerned has dealt with the representation on 17.06.2021 and the Hon'ble Minister concerned has dealt with the representation on 20.06.2021 and finally, the representation came to be rejected on 26.07.2021. It is seen that in between 17.05.2021 and 16.06.2021, there is a delay of 29 days. After excluding the government holidays of 8 days, there is a delay of 21 days in considering the petitioner's representation.

6. At this juncture, it is useful to refer the decision of the Honourable Apex Court in the case of Rajammal vs. State of Tamil Nadu and another, reported in 1999 (1) SCC 417, wherein the Apex Court has observed and held that it is for the Authority concerned to explain the delay, if any, in disposal of the representation and if any delay was caused on account of nay indifference or lapse in considering the representation, such delay will adversely affect further detention of the prisoner.

7. In the case on hand, as stated supra, the delay of 21 days in considering the representation of the petitioner has not been properly explained by the respondents. Hence, in our considered view, the detention order is liable to be set aside solely on the ground of delay by following the decision of the Honourable Apex Court referred supra.

8. In fine, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. The detention order in Cr.M.P.No. 02 of 2021 dated 25.03.2021 passed by the second respondent, is set aside. Consequently, the detenu, Vigneswaran @ Vicky, S/o.Manikandan, aged about 23 years, who is now detained at Central Prison, Madurai is directed to be released forthwith unless his presence or custody or detention is required in connection with any other case.
