2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the victim in this case, who is aged about 15 years. Her father died in an accident and her mother died due to illness. Hence, she was under the care of her grandfather. She had an affair with the first accused. The victim child was not willing to live with her grandfather and hence, she was placed in the Home at Adaikalapuram. Thereafter, the victim girl insisted the first accused to marry her. On 12.07.2021 she eloped with first accused and the petitioners herein arranged marriage to them. The marriage was solemnized on 14.07.2021. Therefore, the present case came to be registered.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have nothing to do with the alleged occurrence.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioners herein arranged marriage of minor girl with the first accused. He further submitted that investigation is yet to be completed.

5.Considering the nature of allegations levelled against the petitioners that they arranged marriage of the minor girl with the first accused at the instance of the victim, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7.Accordingly, this criminal original petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Thoothukudi, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:
