ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by M.M.SUNDRESH, J.)

The petitioner has come forward to file this Writ Petition for a direction to auction the licence for the shops belonging to respondents 2 and 3.

2.In the counter affidavit filed by the third respondent, it has been stated that the licence issued to the existing licensees, who are not parties before us, have been extended on 19.10.2020 even much prior to the alleged representation of the petitioner said to have been made on 28.10.2020.

3.In view of the above development, by which the licenses have already been extended, a third party right has crept in and therefore, the prayer as sought for is not feasible for consideration. However, we make it clear that after the expiry of the licenses, the shops have to be necessarily brought up for auction.

4.With the above observation, the Writ Petition stands disposed of. No costs.
