After marriage, the petitioner separated from his parents and living in the defacto complainant's house along with his wife. In this juncture, the petitioner went to his parents' home and thereafter, he did not return to the defacto complainant's house for 20 days, so that, the defacto complainant and her daughter made a complaint on 09.09.2021 before the All Woman Police Station where the Station Officer called the petitioner through mobile phone but, his phone was switched off. Thereafter, on the same day, the petitioner came to the defacto complainant's house, abused his wife and mother-in-law and also assaulted them. Hence, the present complaint.

3.It is reported by the learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) that this petitioner assaulted the victim brutally. He has also produced the photographs showing the nature of injury sustained by the victim. He would further submit that the victim is taking two previous cases to his credit. Hence, he strongly opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
