ORDER

This petition has been filed to set aside the order passed in Cr.M.P.No.1064 of 2021 dated 11.08.2021, on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Karur.

2.The case of the petitioner is that a case in Crime No.199 of 2018 was registered against the petitioner under Section 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC. The petitioner filed a petition in Cr.M.P.No.2879 of 2018 before the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Karur and he was released on bail under Section 167(2) of Cr.P.C., on certain conditions, in which, the second condition is that the petitioner was directed to appear before the concerned Investigation Officer at 10.00 a.m., on all working days. As the petitioner has violated the condition, the respondent police has filed a petition in Cr.M.P.No.1064 of 2021 for cancellation of the bail and that petition was allowed by the trial Court and the bail was cancelled. Warrant was issued and the petitioner was detained in jail. Against the cancellation of the bail order, the petitioner has come forward with this revision case.

3. On the side of the petitioner, it is stated that the trial Court wrongly cancelled the bail order without considering that the bail order was granted two years prior to the date of cancellation of the order and the accused was appearing before the Court regularly. It is wrong to state that the accused breached the bail condition. Sufficient opportunity to contest the cancellation petition was not given to the petitioner. The petitioner was not given legal assistance. The bail was granted under Section 167(2) of Cr.P.C., cannot be cancelled by the Magistrate and prayed the order to be set aside.

4. On the side of the respondent, it is stated that NBW was pending against the petitioner. The petitioner is having 10 previous cases. Out of 10 previous cases, six cases are pending and they are grievous in nature. The petitioner is a habitual offender and prayed the revision to be dismissed.

5. A perusal of the records reveals that the NBW was pending against the petitioner in C.C.No.282 of 2018. NBW was issued and the petitioner was remanded to judicial custody on 02.08.2021. It is true that the petitioner has violated the bond conditions and he failed to appear before the Court.

6. Considering the previous antecedents of the petitioner and considering the fact that the NBW was pending against the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to set aside the impugned order. The petitioner is at liberty to file fresh bail petition before the trial Court.

7. In view of the above, this Criminal Revision Case is dismissed.
