Heard the learned counsel on either side.

2.The petitioner wants this Court to quash the impugned proceedings. The petitioner is facing prosecution in S.C.No.373 of 2021 on the file of the IV Additional Sessions Court, Madurai for the offences under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 323, 332 and 188 of IPC and Sections 3 and 4 of TNPPDL Act. It is alleged that on 23.01.2017, the petitioner along with others had taken part in what is known as Jallikattu agitation. The petitioner has been implicated in the final report. To quash the same, this criminal original petition has been filed.

3. When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor pointed out that an injured head constable by name Ariyampichan has specifically named the petitioner herein. The petitioner is said to have picked up stones and hurled the same on the police. Since specific overt acts have been attributed to the petitioner, I am not in a position to grant relief. Therefore, this criminal original petition is dismissed. At this stage, the learned counsel for the petitioner pointed out that the petitioner had already completed his law course and that he is awaiting enrolment. Since the petitioner's life and career is at stake and the case is already four years old, the learned Trial Judge is directed to conclude the case on merits and in accordance with law within a period of four months from 21.12.2021. The next hearing is said to be 21.12.2021. I make it clear that I have not gone into the merits of the matter. All the defences of the petitioner are left open. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
