ORDER

When the matter is taken up for hearing today, Mr.M.Karuppasamy, learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents would submit that as against the impugned order, dated 14.11.2019, a revision petition has been filed, in terms of G.O. (Ms).No.409, Revenue SSI (1) Department, dated 02.07.2008, before the 1st respondent / the Commissioner of Land Administration, Chennai. According to the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, a copy of the revision petition, which is pending before the 1st respondent for consideration, has also been enclosed in the typed set of documents.

2. According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, despite the revision petition being filed on 20th December, 2019, the same has not been disposed of as on date.

3. When objection was raised on behalf of the respondents that there is second revisional remedy is available before the 1st respondent, a statement of fact was submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner and he has also produced a copy of the acknowledgement of the second revision being filed before the 1st respondent.

4. At this, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner requested this Court to direct the 1st respondent to dispose of the revision petition pending before him, within the time to be stipulated by this Court.

5. In consideration of the above pleadings, this Court is inclined to dispose of this writ petition with a direction as under:-

The 1st respondent is directed to dispose of the revision petition filed by the petitioner herein, dated 20th December, 2019 on merits and in accordance with law, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6. With the above direction, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
