ORDER

Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners, the learned Additional public Prosecutor appearing for the first respondent and the learned counsel appearing for the second respondent.

2. The petitioners are shown as accused in the impugned FIR for the offences under Sections 294(b), 432 and 324 IPC and under Section 75 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children)

Act, 2015. The defacto complainant does not want to pursue the matter. However, to satisfy my conscience, I wanted to know what actually happened. It is seen that the defacto complainant and her husband are not together. The defacto complainant's son appears to have fallen in love with a classmate. He had tatooed her name on his chest. The petitioners are close relatives. They appear to have taken him to task, and as a result, the present complaint came to be lodged. This is a case, in which the Section 95 IPC can be invoked. When an youngster takes a deviant path it is natural that the elders of the family censure him. Registration of an FIR is not warranted. The impugned FIR is quashed. This Criminal Original Petition is allowed. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
