O R D E R

The petitioner prays for a Mandamus directing respondent Nos.1 to 4 to disburse all pensionary benefits along with other monetary benefits due to the petitioner's deceased husband, namely, M.Sundaram as well as and family pension with statutory interest, without asking her to obtain relaxation from the Government within a time frame to be fixed by this Court.

2. There are serious disputes in regard to the facts and the relationship inter se the petitioner and the said M.Sundaram. It appears that the respondent Authorities have rejected the proposal on the ground that the petitioner's entitlement to the benefits, as claimed, have not been established by her.

3. In such circumstances, this is not a case warranting or justifying interference under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. This writ petition is thus closed, leaving it open to the petitioner to pursue her remedies before the appropriate forum in accordance with law.
