(Order of the Court was made by V. BHARATHIDASAN, J.)

Alleging that the petitioner's wife by name Gayathri, aged about 21 years, has been illegally detained by the third respondent/father of the detenu and hence, the present Habeas Corpus Petition has been filed.

2.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has got married to the detenu and now she is three months pregnant and the third respondent/father of the detenu has forcibly detained the detenu against her will.

3.Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, the detenu was secured and produced before this court and on enquiry, the detenu submitted that earlier she was in love with the petitioner and no marriage has been taken place and the allegation that she is pregnant is also false. She would further submit that now she is living with her parents on her own volition and she is not illegally detained by her parents as alleged by the petitioner.

4.Recording the said submission that the detenu is not illegal detained by the third respondent, no further adjudication is required in this petition and hence, the Habeas Corpus Petition is dismissed.
