O R D E R

Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents.

2. The petitioner wants his name to be deleted from the history sheet list maintained by the third respondent. It is not in dispute that the petitioner has not come under the adverse notice of the police for the last two years.

3. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor states that every year during the month of December, an annual review is taken and the preceding two years from the date of annual review, his name will be deleted from the history sheet list.

4. Recording the said submission, this writ petition stands disposed of. No costs.
