2.The case against the petitioner is that on 13.11.2007, when the victim girl was studying seventh standard in Government Higher Secondary School, Chathrapatti village, due to covid 19, she along with one Jeyalakshmi has managed to go to work in Ramasubbu bandage company. A5 is a neighbor of victim. A2 used to visit the house of A5 who is his relative. A2 developed friendship with the victim girl from the month of November 2019. During the second week of April, A2 called the victim child and told her that he fell in love with her and A2 committed sexual assault. A case was registered in Crime No.8 of 2020 against the petitioner. The case was taken on file as Spl.S.C.No.52 of 2020. After trial, the trial Court found the petitioner/A2 guilty and convicted the petitioner/A2 and sentenced him to undergo five years imprisonment and to pay a fine of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) in default to undergo six months imprisonment for the offence under Section 8 r/w. 7 of POCSO Act. Against the conviction and sentence imposed by the trial Court, the petitioner/A2 has filed a criminal appeal in CrI.A.(MD)No.499 of 2021 before this Court and along with the appeal, he filed this petition for suspension of sentence.

3.On the side of the petitioner, it is stated that there was love affair between the petitioner/A2 and the victim girl. The victim girl has written a love letter to the petitioner and love letter was marked as Ex.P1. The victim girl admitted the love letter in her evidence. All the witnesses are relatives of the petitioner. Though it is mentioned that there was friendship between the petitioner and the victim from the year 2019, the complaint was lodged only on 06.06.2020. The complainant - mother of the victim girl turned hostile. Section 7 of the Act is not proved against A2. Only based on the statement recorded under Section 164 of Cr.P.C., the trial Court has convicted the accused. There are much more arguable points for consideration in the appeal. The petitioner is in custody for three months at the time of trial and is in custody from the date of judgment (i.e. 11.11.2021) and prayed the sentence to be suspended till the disposal of the appeal.

4.On the side of the prosecution, it is stated that the appellant is 21 years old at the time of occurrence. The victim girl is 12 years old. The prosecution has examined 13 witnesses and marked 14 documents and proved the case beyond all reasonable doubts. The offence is serious in nature and is against the society and prayed the petition to be dismissed.

5.It is seen that at the time of occurrence the age of victim is 12 years and 6 months. The offence is serious in nature. The judgment is a recent one. Considering the age of the victim and considering the fact that the judgment is a recent one and considering the seriousness of the offence and considering that the offence is against the society, this Court is not inclined to grant suspension of sentence to the petitioner at present. This petition is dismissed.
