herein.

3. The petitioner is having a number of criminal cases to his credit. The petitioner alleges that the respondent police are compelling him to execute security bond under Chapter VIII of Cr.P.C., even without following due process of law. He would allege that his family members are being harassed.

4. When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned Government Advocate on instructions gives an undertaking that they would follow due process of law, if they want to obtain any security bond from the petitioner.

5. I direct the respondents to not to harass the petitioner and his family members. This criminal original petition is allowed on these terms.
