2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and the first accused are husband and wife and the petitioners herein are in-laws of the defacto complainant. The marriage between the defacto complainant and the first accused took place on 27.10.2021. After the marriage, they got female child. Because of the marriage of the first accused with the first petitioner, trouble has arisen between the husband and wife. When that was questioned, assault has been made and she was driven out of the matrimonial house. Hence, this complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the first accused has been arrested and thereafter, released on bail. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioners 2 and 5 also supported and instigated the second marriage of the first accused with the first petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the main allegation has been made against the first accused has already been released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail, on executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kovilpatti, and on further condition that the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders. The petitioners shall comply with the condition stipulated under Section 438 Cr.P.C scrupulously.
