ORDER

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner.

2. Considering the nature of the relief to be granted, issuance of the notice to the respondents is dispensed with.

3. The petitioner filed a complaint under Section 12 of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 before the Additional Mahela (Magistrate Level) Court, Tiruchirappalli. The complaint was dismissed on 23.04.2021. Aggreived by the same, the petitioner filed an appeal before the Sessions Court with condone delay petition. The grievance of the petitioner is that for some reasons, the condone delay petition is not being disposed of.

4. When the matter was listed before me on the last occasion, I suggested that without prejudice to her general contention, the petitioner can still give up some of the respondents.

5. Today, when the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, on instructions, submitted that the petitioner does not want to prosecute R.5 to R.9. In other words, she wants to pursue the appeal only as regards the respondents 1 to 4 and 10.

6. Recording the said submission, the learned Principal District Sessions Judge, Tiruchirappalli, is directed to dispose of the petition mentioned miscellaneous petition on merits and in accordance with law within a period of two weeks to be computed from 10.01.2022. This Criminal Original Petition is disposed of, accordingly.
