3.Though the objections of the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) are fairly sound, the relief sought for in this case is quite limited. All that the petitioner demands is that he should not be compelled by the respondents to execute bond. No exception can be taken to his prayer.

4.The respondents will have to deal with the petitioner only in the manner known to law. If the respondents want to obtain any security bond from the petitioner, then the procedure set out in Criminal Procedure Code will have to be necessarily followed.

5.With this direction to the respondents, this criminal original petition is disposed of.
