2.It will only be prudent that parties await orders of the Division Bench and then, move forward.

3.If there is again a violation, then the petitioner can always file a fresh Contempt Petition. If there is no violation and the grievance of the petitioner's is addressed, then, nothing survives for adjudication, giving that liberty to the petitioner to await the orders of the Writ Appellate Court which, is only appropriate, and the present Contempt Petition is closed. No costs.
