The precise grievance of the petitioner is that revision petition preferred against order passed by the Divisional Commissioner (appellate authority) is pending before the Financial Commissioner, Chandigarh with a prayer for stay of impugned order dated 2.9.2020 but the petitioner is being pressurized to hand over charge of lambardar to private respondent without adjudication of challenge against order dated 2.9.2020.

Without examining merits of the case, the present petition stands disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to file an appropriate application before the Financial Commissioner, Chandigarh, seized of the aforesaid revision petition, within a period of seven days. In case such an application is filed by the petitioner, the same shall be disposed of by the authority concerned, within a period of 15 days from the date of its filing, in accordance with law.

For the period of seven days given to file an appropriate application before the revisional authority and till the application filed by the petitioner is disposed of by the authority concerned, the petitioner shall not be pressurized to hand over charge of lambardar to private respondent.
