After arguing for some time and realising that the Court is not inclined to grant bail, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petition is not being pressed. A prayer is made that the petitioner would surrender within one week and apply for regular bail, let his bail application be decided expeditiously.

The petition is disposed of as not pressed. In case the petitioner surrenders within one week from today and applies for regular bail, the court concerned shall take up the bail application within two days of its filing and decide it as expeditiously as possible.
