Present petition has been filed under Article 226 of Constitution of India seeking direction for protection of life and liberty of the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that petitioner No.1 who is aged about 32 years is already married with respondent No.4 but respondent No.4 constantly tortured her and resultantly, in order to save herself and to live her life, she along with her minor child started living with petitioner No.2 but there is active threat by respondent No.4 to their life.

Learned counsel has further submitted that representation was given to Superintendent of Police, Patiala vide Annexure P-3 but no action has been taken in this regard.

Notice of motion.

On asking of the Court, Mr. Luvinder Sofat, Asst.AG, Punjab accepts notice on behalf of the State-respondents No.1 to 3.

Keeping in view the grievance raised in the present petition the same may be disposed of at this stage by issuing appropriate directions to respondent No.2.

Consequently, present petition is disposed of with a direction to the Superintendent of Police, Patiala – respondent No.2 to look into the representation made by the petitioners vide Annexure P-3 and to take further appropriate action which would be requisite in the facts and circumstances of the present case and in accordance with law.
