Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that since in the intervening period, the petitioner was granted interim bail by the trial Court, awaiting the FSL report, which has now been received.

Learned State counsel submits that challan was presented way back on 24.07.2020, whereas the petitioner has not surrendered back, after availing the interim bail, which was granted awaiting the FSL report.

In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the present petition with liberty to the petitioner to first surrender before the trial Court and apply for regular bail.
