for the petitioner in CRM-M-2759-2021.

AMOL RATTAN SINGH, J. (Oral)

Case heard by video conference.

CRM-M-2129-2021

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has unfortunately died.

Obviously, this petition has been rendered infructuous and is disposed of as such.

CRM-M-2759-2021

In the FIR in question in this petition also, the petitioner was alleged to have committed the same offences as in the accompanying petition (vide the same FIR).

The reply filed on behalf of the respondent State, dated 14.05.2021, is ordered to be taken on record.

Though in the said reply, after stating that the report under Section 173 of the Cr.P.C. has been submitted, a prayer has been made for dismissing the petition, however, even as per the instructions of learned State counsel, there is no further investigation required in the matter, presently at least, with the challan already having been presented before the competent court.

That being so, without making any comment on the actual merits of the case whatsoever, the petition is allowed, with the order dated 25.01.2021, made absolute, on the same terms and conditions.

(A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of the connected case).
