(Through Video Conferencing)

ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J. (Oral)

This is a petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a direction to the respondents to release the petitioner from jail detention as he has already undergone the sentence awarded to him.

Learned State counsel on the basis of reply of the Superintendent of Jail, Central Jail-1, Hisar submits that the petitioner, apart from the present petition, stands convicted in number of cases under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act or Sections 406 and 420 and other provisions of the IPC and in none of the cases, it is stated that all the sentences will run concurrently and there is no judicial order in this regard.

Learned State counsel further submits that the petitioner is on special parole due to COVID-19 situation and has not surrendered back so far.

After hearing the aforesaid submissions and considering the fact that this petition is pending since 2020 and there is no prayer in this petition for concurrence of the sentence awarded in the other cases, this petition is disposed of with a direction that as and when the petitioner completes the sentence in other cases, he will be released from judicial custody.

Accordingly, the present petition is disposed of.
