Learned State counsel has informed that the trial is at its fag end inasmuch as the matter is now fixed for recording defence evidence as well as for final arguments.

In view of the aforestated position, this Court does not find any ground for releasing the petitioner on bail at this stage.

The petition, as such, is dismissed.

However, the Trial Court is directed to take necessary steps for expediting the conclusion of trial provided the defence counsel renders utmost cooperation for the same and duly argues the matter on the date fixed.
