DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

The matter has been taken up through video conferencing.

The present petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for the grant of regular bail in FIR No.100 dated 04.03.2016 registered under Sections 302/34/201 IPC at Police Station Sadar, Hansi, district Hisar.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that since in the petitioner's trial 21 out of the 26 prosecution witnesses have already been examined, at this stage, he would be satisfied if the present petition is disposed of with issuance of directions to the State to produce all the remaining prosecution witnesses before the Trial Court within three months from the date next fixed before the Trial Court.

The petitioner's trial is at its fag end. He also has a right to a speedy trial. Therefore, accepting the alternate prayer made on behalf of the petitioner, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to the State to produce all the remaining 5 prosecution witnesses within three months from the next date fixed before the Trial Court with a further direction to the Trial Court to make all endeavours to dispose of petitioner's trial within four months from the next date fixed before it.

In case the petitioner's trial is not disposed of in the afore period and the delay in its disposal is not attributable to the petitioner, he would be at liberty to revive his prayer for grant of regular bail.
