..... RESPONDENT(S)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASWANT SINGH
 HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANT PARKASH

PRESENT: - Mr. Bhanu Pratap Singh, Advocate, for the petitioner(s).

The aforesaid presence is being recorded through video conferencing since the proceedings are being conducted in virtual court.

Instant petition has been filed under Article 226/227 of Constitution of India for grant of 06 weeks parole as per the Punjab Good Conduct Prisoners (Temporary Release) Act, 1962 and the Punjab Good Conduct Prisoners (Temporary Release) Rules, 1963, to enable the petitioner to meet his family members.

The petitioner was tried in FIR No.82 dated 24.05.2016, under Sections 121 and 121-A of IPC registered at Police Station Rahon, District SBS Nagar, wherein he has been convicted and sentenced for life imprisonment vide judgment dated 05.02.2019. Against the judgment of conviction and order of sentence, petitioner filed an appeal before this Court, which is still pending admitted for final adjudication.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner applied for parole for 08 weeks to enable him to meet his family members, but his request has been rejected by respondent No.4 vide order dated 06.04.2020 (Annexure P-1) on the basis of report of Superintendent of Police, Kaithal that it will not be in the interest of security and legal establishment of the State and local police has objection in releasing the convict on parole.

After having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and perusing the paper book, this Court is of the considered opinion that the authority rejecting the parole has exercised its jurisdiction on the basis of the facts collected for considering the request of the petitioner for releasing him on parole. It has been specifically mentioned in the order dated 06.04.2020 (Annexure P-1) that it will not be in the interest of security and legal establishment of the State and local police has objection in releasing the convict on parole. If such type of convict is enlarged on parole, there is every apprehension that he would indulge himself in the similar activity and would abscond. Moreover, the ground taken in the petition i.e. to enable the petitioner to meet his family members does not appeal to logic at all and cannot be said to be justifiable ground for granting the concession of parole.

Otherwise also, it is the subjective satisfaction of the authority concerned to evaluate the circumstances seeking parole. Unless and until some arbitrariness or malafide is apparent in the order of the said authority, only then, this Court should intervene under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India.

In view of the above, we do not find any merit in the instant petition and same is accordingly dismissed.
