VIKAS BAHL, J. (Oral)

This is a criminal writ petition under Articles 226/227 for issuance of writ in the nature of mandamus for directing respondent Nos.1 to 3 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners.

On 03.02.2020, the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court was pleased to issue notice of motion and in the meantime had also directed respondent No.2-Senior Superintendent of Police, Fatehabad to look into the matter and find out the existence of alleged threat perception to the lives and liberty of the petitioners. A perusal of the petition would also show that a representation dated 01.02.2020 had also been given to respondent No.2. The marriage in the present case is of the year 2019.

CRWP-1199-2020

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that at present, there is no threat to the lives and liberty of the petitioners.

In view of the statement made by learned counsel for the petitioners, the present petition is disposed of as infructuous.

However, liberty is granted to the petitioners to move a representation to respondent No.2-Superintendent of Police, Fatehabad, in case they have any apprehension to their lives and liberty in future and respondent No.2 is directed to look into the matter and take appropriate action accordance with law.

It is, however, clarified that this Court has not gone into the merits of the allegations made by the petitioners and it would be open to respondent No.2 to make his independent enquiry/assessment with regard to the representation, if any, moved by the petitioners with a limited aspect aforesaid.

It is, however, clarified that this order shall not debar the State from proceeding against the petitioners, if involved in any other case.
