

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-8909 of 2021

Date of Decision: 25.02.2021

Rashim Talwar

Petitioner

Versus

The State of Punjab and others

Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AVNEESH JHINGAN

Present: Ms. Aayush Arora, Advocate for the petitioner.
Ms. Rashmi Attri, AAG, Punjab.

AVNEESH JHINGAN, J (Oral):

The matter is taken up for hearing through video conference due to COVID-19 situation.

This petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is filed seeking direction to the official respondents to conduct fair and impartial investigation in the complaint submitted by the petitioner.

The bare facts are that the petitioner has moved a complaint against her father-in-law and mother-in-law, arrayed as respondents No. 4 and 5 in the petition.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that no action is being taken on the complaint filed.

From the pleadings, it is evident that there were some allegations made against the father-in-law and the matter was resolved in the Panchayat. There are bald statements of the petitioner being harassed by the in-laws without even there being any prima facie supporting evidence. From the reading of the complaint, it is forth coming that apprehension of the petitioner is that she may be deprived of the property of the in-laws, as it is stated that there is threat to sell out the property.

The allegations have tone and tenor of a civil dispute. Apart from bald allegations, there is nothing before this Court to interfere in jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

The petition is dismissed.
