IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRWP-2104-2021

Date of decision-03.03.2021

Parvinder Kaur...Petitioner

Vs.

State of Haryana and others...Respondents*CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANOJ BAJAJ

Present: Mr. Karan Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

MANOJ BAJAJ, J.

By means of this writ petition filed under Articles 226 Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C, petitioner has prayed for issuance of directions to respondent Nos.2 and 3 to protect her life and liberty from private respondent Nos.4 to 8.

Learned counsel has argued that private respondents, who are mother, brother and other relatives of the petitioner, are forcing her to marry a person of their choice, whom the petitioner does not like, therefore, she left the house and is now residing with one person, namely, Mehar Singh, with whom she was working at Patanjli Yog Peeth Haridwar. Learned counsel has drawn the attention of the Court to the representation dated 25.02.2021 (Annexure P-2) submitted by petitioner to Superintendent of Police, Kaithal and contended that no action has been taken so far. He prays for issuance of necessary directions.

During the course of hearing, it is not disputed by learned counsel that private respondents are permanent residents of District

Haridwar, State of Uttrakhand. He submits that as the petitioner is presently residing at Kaithal, therefore, petition has been filed before this Court.

After hearing the learned counsel, this Court does not find it to be a fit case for exercising the extra ordinary writ jurisdiction, as the petitioner is living with a person of her choice and the averments contained in the petition against her mother, brother and other relatives are not supported with any convincing material.

Dismissed.
