for respondents No.4 to 6

SANT PARKASH, J.

Instant intra-court appeal under clause X of the Letters Patent is directed against the order dated 26.02.2021 passed by the learned Single Judge, whereby the writ petition preferred by the petitioners (herein appellants), seeking protection to their life and liberty, was dismissed.

The facts pleaded are that the appellants are living together in a live-in relationship against the wishes of private respondents No.4 to 6, who are the family members of appellant No.1. They approached this Court by way of CRWP No.2003 of 2021 seeking issuance of directions to respondents No.2 and 3 to protect their life and liberty at the hands of said respondents. The same was dismissed by the learned Single Judge vide impugned order dated 26.02.2021 observing that there is no threat to the appellants at the hands of private respondents.

Aggrieved against the impugned order dated 26.02.2021, hence the present appeal.

On 15.03.2021, this Court passed the following order:-

“Learned counsel for the State submits that statement of the appellant-girl under Section 164 Cr.P.C. has been recorded, wherein she has stated that she is married and is living with her husband, namely, Pankul of her own sweet volition. She further submits that statements of the parents of the appellant-girl remain to be recorded and thereafter a cancellation report would be filed as no case of enticement is made out. She, thus, prays for an adjournment to file an affidavit of the SHO concerned.

List on 06.04.2021.”

In compliance of the order dated 15.03.2021, an affidavit dated 05.04.2021 of Kulbir Kaur, Inspector/SHO, Police Station, Taraori, District Karnal, has been placed on the record, wherein it is mentioned that the statements of parents and brother (who are respondents No. 4 to 6 herein) of the appellant-girl (Vidisha Goyal) have been recorded to the effect that they shall not cause any harm to the appellants. It is verified that there is no danger or threat perception to the appellants of their life and liberty at the hands of private respondents. It is also mentioned in the said affidavit that appellant No.1 (Vidisha Goyal) is living with appellant No.2 (Pankul) out of her own volition.

Today, at the time of resumed hearing, learned counsel for private respondents No. 4 to 6 assured the Court that there will be no interference in the life of the appellants by the family members of appellant No.1, i.e. respondents No.4 to 6.

In view of the above-said stand of learned counsel for respondents No.4 to 6, the present appeal is disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous.
