Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JAISHREE THAKUR

Present: Ms. Rosi, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Deepshikha Chauhan, A.A.G., Haryana.

JAISHREE THAKUR, J. (Oral)

This is a petition that has been filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C. seeking anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.422 dated 05.09.2020 under Sections 13(2), 17 of Haryana Gauvansh Sanrakshan and Gausamvardhan Act, Section 11 of Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act and Section 120-B of IPC registered at Police Station Sadar Nuh, District Nuh.

Learned counsel for the petitioner herein would argue that he has been falsely implicated in the said matter and has not committed any of the offences as specified in the FIR.

Whereas, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent-State would rely on the status report filed, showing that the petitioner herein is a habitual offender and has been nominated as an accused in 07 different FIRs. It is argued that out of the 7 FIRs, the petitioner has been acquitted in 2 FIRs, however, the rest FIRs are either under trial or under investigation. It is also argued that the vehicle that had been caught, was found to be carrying five cows out of which one cow and one ox were found to be dead and a knife, one country made plastic katta and a rope were also recovered. It is further argued that the petitioner herein while absconding was duly identified by the secret informer. State counsel would further contend that the other co-accused were arrested and are now on regular bail.

No ground is made out for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner herein.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks to withdraw the present petition and submits that the petitioner would surrender before the trial Court within a period of one week and would thereafter move his application for regular bail which should be decided expeditiously.

Dismissed as withdrawn.

In case, the petitioner surrenders within a period of one week, let his bail application be considered within a period of one week thereafter.
