Mr. Yadav, learned counsel for respondent states that in compliance of order dated 16.2.2021 passed in CWP-21886-2020, when petitioner visited the office of respondent, the information available with department was supplied to him.

Learned counsel for petitioner states that the documents as sought by petitioner have not been supplied to him and information supplied to him by department is vague.

In view of the above, this petition is disposed of.

However, it would be open to the petitioner to file another application under the RTI Act with specific reference to the documents regarding which information is sought.
