Report dated 30.04.2021 was received from the trial Court with the statement of Investigating Officer. This Court by order dated 20.08.2021 directed the parties to appear before the trial Court and get their statements recorded with regard to the compromise.

In compliance thereto, report from the trial Court has been received, relevant extract of which is as under:-

“4. It is respectfully submitted that in view of the statements suffered by complainant Amarjit Kaur and accused Munish Gupta, the matter has been compromised between them with the intervention of respectable persons of the locality, out of their free Will, voluntarily and without any pressure, threat, undue influence or coercion from any quarter. The copies of statements of complainant Amarjit Kaur, Sh. Sukhwinder Singh Rai, Adv. Counsel for the complainant, Amarjit Kaur, accused Munish Gupta and screen shot of video conference call with complainant Amarjit Kaur are enclosed herewith.”

By making a reference to the report dated 30.04.2021 sent by the trial Court, counsel for the petitioner submits that Investigating Officer, who had appeared before the trial Court on 27.04.2021, had made a statement that none of the three accused including Munish Gupta (petitioner in the present case) have been declared as Proclaimed Offender and the FIR is under investigation.

Supreme Court in Gian Singh Versus State of Punjab and another, 2012(4) RCR (Criminal) 543 has held that the High Court has wide power under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to quash an FIR or complaint having predominantly civil flavour or involving matrimonial offences and family disputes wherein the wrong is basically private or personal in nature and the parties have resolved their entire dispute. A Full Bench of this Court in case Kulwinder Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Division Bench of this Court in case Sube Singh and another vs. State of Haryana and another, 2013(4) RCR (Criminal) 102 has held that compounding of offence can be allowed even after conviction, during pendency of the appeal and even in cases involving non-compoundable offences.

Counsel for the parties are also ad idem that in view of the settlement of the dispute between the parties, the present petition deserves to be accepted. In view of the above, no purpose will be served in continuing with the criminal proceedings.

Accordingly, the petition is allowed. FIR No.41 dated 01.03.2020 registered under Sections 419, 467, 468, 471, 120-B of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Sahnewal, District Police Commissionerate Ludhiana (Annexure P-1) is quashed qua the petitioner.
