Through Video Conferencing

JASGURPREET SINGH PURI. J. (Oral)

The learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that in the present case the FIR was lodged against the petitioners by falsely implicating them and stated that it is a case where the complainant was the father of the deceased and the allegations are that the deceased had love affair with one Neha and the petitioners were harassing the deceased. Learned counsel has further submitted that the petitioners are not a relative of the girl and were only a villagers and furthermore there is no suicide note in the present case and even as per the allegations the offences under Sections 306 and 107 IPC are not made against the petitioners because there is no immediate intimidation alleged.

Notice of motion was issued in the present case on 6.3.2020 and the interim protection was granted by this Court.

Today, learned State counsel on instruction from SI Rakesh Kumar states that in pursuance to the order passed by this court on 6.3.2020, the petitioners have already joined the investigation and they are fully co-operating with the investigation process and they are not required for custodial investigation.

In view of the stand taken by the learned State counsel, the present petition is allowed and order dated 6.3.2020 is made absolute.
