RAVI SHANKER JHA, C.J. (ORAL)

This petition by way of public interest litigation has been filed by the petitioner alleging violation of the orders passed by the Supreme Court in the case of Abhey Singh v. State of Uttar Pradesh 2013 (15) SCC 435, by the individuals, who have installed red, blue and white lights on their private vehicles. It is submitted that he has filed representations in this regard before the respondent-authorities which have gone unheard.

Learned Additional Advocate General appearing for the respondent-States of Punjab and Haryana as well as learned Senior Standing Counsel appearing for Union Territory, Chandigarh submit that in case the petitioner files fresh representations before the respondent-authorities by giving particular instances, the respondent-authorities shall look into the same and take a decision thereon in accordance with law.

In view of the aforesaid statements made by learned Additional Advocate General appearing for the States of Punjab and Haryana as well as learned Senior Standing Counsel appearing for Union Territory, Chandigarh, the petition stands disposed of with a direction to the respondent-authorities that in case the petitioner files fresh representations by giving particular instances along with a copy of the order passed today, the same shall be considered and decided expeditiously in accordance with law.
