Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that he has instructions to say that without prejudice to his right of defence, the petitioner is ready to pay a sum of Rs.25,000/- to the victim towards his medical expenses.

Learned State counsel has submitted that challan has already been presented on 25.01.2021 and as per the custody certificate, the petitioner is in custody for the last more than 05 months and is not involved in any other case.

After hearing learned counsel for the parties, without commenting anything on merits of the case, considering the fact that as per the FIR, the petitioner and the complainant are friends and due to aggravation of verbal spate, he has caused injury to the victim and has also volunteered to pay the medical expenses of Rs.25,000/- and also in view of the fact that conclusion of the trial will take some time, as till date, even the charges have not been framed, this petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on regular bail subject to furnishing his bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Illaq Magistrate/Duty Magistrate, concerned.

This will, however, be subject to the condition that the petitioner will hand over a demand draft of Rs.25,000/- favouring complainant-victim Ankit at the time of furnishing bail/surety bonds, without prejudice to his right of defence.
