VIKAS BAHL, J. (Oral)

This is a petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of directions to respondents No.2 to 5 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners.

This matter came up for hearing on 13.03.2020, on which date the following order was passed:-

“Present: Ms. Amandeep Kaur, Advocate for the petitioners.

It is contended that petitioner No.1 – Priyanka Bansal, aged about 27 years has got married with petitioner No.2- Deepak Jindal, aged about 28 years, against the wishes of her family members, arrayed as private respondents No. 6 to 11, who are threatening to interfere in their marital life, as such to seek protection in that regard, the petitioners have approached this Court by way of filing the present petition.

Of course nobody can be allowed to take law into his hands and to indulge in illegal activities.

Notice of motion for 22.5.2020.

In the meanwhile, respondent No.5 -Senior Superintendent of Police, Mansa, is directed to ensure that no physical harm is caused to the petitioners at the hands of private respondents or persons claiming under them. However, this order is not to be taken as legalizing the alleged marriage between the petitioners and shall not save the petitioners from any criminal or civil action to which they may be found liable in view of the circumstances of the case.”

Today, learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioners are happily living a married life and she does not want to press this petition any further.

Accordingly, this petition is disposed of as having not pressed.
