The instant petition is filed under Section 482 CrPC for quashing of FIR No.65 dated 28.06.2020 under Sections 323, 34, 406, 498-A and 506 of the IPC, registered at Police Station Women Police Station, Ballabgarh Faridabad and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 02.02.2021 (Annexure P-2)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that it was on account of marital discord between the complainant and her husband, the FIR in question came to be registered. However, subsequently the matter was amicably settled between the parties.

Vide order dated 28.04.2021 of this Court, the parties were directed to appear before the learned trial Court/Illaq Magistrate on 27.05.2021 to get their statements recorded regarding the compromise arrived at, between them.

Report has since been received from the learned JMIC, Faridabad, in pursuance to the direction of this Court. As per the report, compromise has indeed been effected between the parties and the same is without any pressure or coercion and out of their free will. The trial Court has annexed the copies of the statements of the parties with its report.

Learned State counsel too submits that there are no other accused other than the petitioners and respondent No.2 is the only aggrieved person in the FIR in question.

In view of the report of the learned JMIC, Faridabad and the principles laid down by the Apex Court in Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and others (2012) 10 SCC 303, and also by the Full Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, the instant petition is allowed. The aforesaid FIR and all consequential proceedings arising out of it, are quashed.

Needless to say the parties shall remain bound by the terms of compromise and their statements recorded before the Court below.
