ASHOK KUMAR VERMA, J. (ORAL)

Through this petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., prayer has been made for issuance of directions to respondents No. 1 to 4 not to un-necessarily harass the petitioner by calling him to the police station time and again, without any reasonable cause, justification and without even following the provisions of Section 160 Cr.P.C., on account of false and frivolous complaints made by respondents No. 5 to 7, who are bent upon harassing the petitioner in illegal and unlawful manner, in connivance with respondents No. 3 and 4.

At the outset, on instructions from ASI Vijay Kumar, learned counsel for the State submits that the instant petition has rendered infructuous as the matter has been compromised between the parties.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has not disputed the above factual aspect and submits that the instant petition may be disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous.

In view of the above, the instant petition is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.
